

FULVIO NICOLOSI

Pianist

Catania, Italy

+39 3425594675

fulvionicolosi@gmail.com

www.fulvionicolosi.com

"Fulvio Nicolosi is a musician's musician, with a commanding intelligence and profound artistic sensitivity, allied to the most comprehensive technical armoury"

- Leslie Howard · The Keyboard Charitable Trust

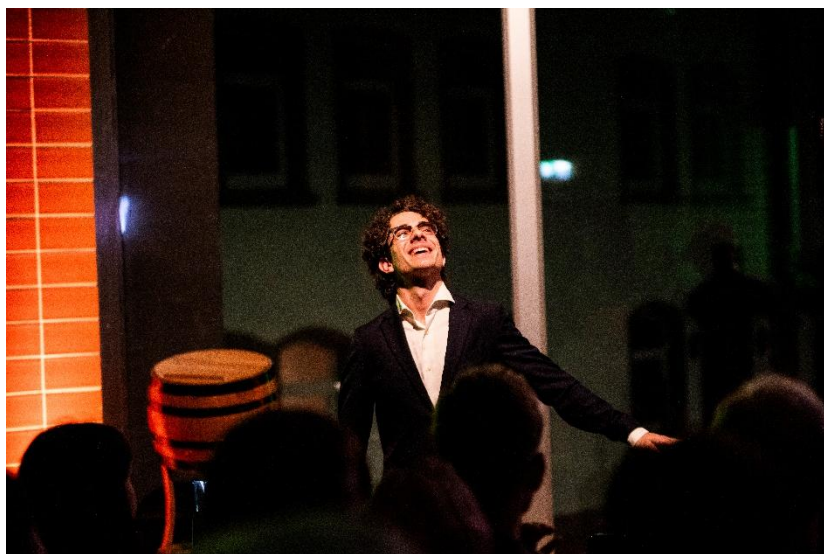

© Flavia Nicolosi

Short Biography (updated June 2026)

Praised by international critics for his "fascinating sprezzatura" (Suonare News) and for bringing his "transcendental mastery to full use [...] with a fearless abandon and youthful mastery that was breathtaking" (Axworthy Commentary), Fulvio Nicolosi regularly performs throughout Europe, gracing prestigious stages from Teatro La Fenice in Venice to the Steinway Hall in London.

Winner of over twenty international piano competitions, he is among the young talents featured in the Keyboard Charitable Trust's concert circuit. Born in Catania in 2003, he graduated with highest honors and an honorable mention from the conservatories of Catania and Perugia. He is currently pursuing his advanced studies at the International Piano Academy Lake Como—founded by William Grant Naboré with Martha Argerich as Honorary President—which is recognized as one of the world's most authoritative centers for high-level piano training.

© David Silesu

Klavierstadt Einbeck